1 No action was taken to stop the Scholarships grants as no definite order to that effect was issued by Govt But the I Gl has not as yet reported whether the girls is favored to ceased to be entitled to the scholarships to enable Govt to pass final order

2 The policy of the Govt of India Regarding equal treatment of Govt and aided Schools has been laid down in Chapter VIII pages 357-477 of the Report of the Indian Edn Commission of 1882. From

Inspector General of Education in Mysore

To B K Venkatavaradiengar, Esq,

General & Revenue Departments,

SIR,

I have the honour to inform you that a sum of Rs 15 a month is allowed by Government for the purpose of granting scholarships to girls of the IV and V Classes of the Empress Girls' School, Tumkur, and that a grant of Rs 12/- a month for scholarships is given to the Aided Hindu Balika Pathasala in Tumkur. This privilege places the two Mission Aided schools in Tumkur at a considerable disadvantage in so much as such of their pupils as rise to the IV and V Classes try to leave their schools and join the Institutions in which scholarships are given. The managers of the Mission Aided schools in the Fort and Horapetta of Tumkur feel greatly discouraged to find that the pupils whom they have educated for several years do not stay with them till they can reward their efforts by passing the Lower Secondary Examination. It was for the purpose of equalising the benefits of scholarships in all the four girls' schools of Tumkur that I recommended in my letter No 6282/209 of 24th January 1902 a monthly grant of Rs 15 for each of the two Mission Girls' Schools. Government in their Order No 40444/29 104 dated 17th September 1902 stated their inability to sanction the grants for scholarships and added that "they had under contemplation the stopping of the existing scholarships as soon as the girls now enjoying them ceased to be entitled thereto." The policy of the Government of India has always been to give to aided institutions at least equal advantages with Government institutions and always to encourage Aided institutions as much as possible. Under these circumstances I beg to recommend that the monthly grants of Rs 15 and Rs 12 given for scholarships to the Empress Girls School and the Hindu Aided Aryabalika Pathasala may be reduced to Rupees 10 in each case and a similar grant of Rs 10 a month may be sanctioned for each of the two Mission girls' Schools in Tumkur. The extra amount of Rs 13 required can be met from a grant of Rs 15 sanctioned for similar scholarships in the Kannada Girls' School, Shimoga which remains unutilised that school having been reduced to a Primary School on account of successive epidemics of plague and the inefficiency of the Headmistress

SIR

With reference to your docket No 861-19-2 Edn dated 2/3 August 1904, I have the honour to answer the questions stated in your docket seriatim

(1) No action was taken to stop the grants in aid of Scholarships given to two schools in Tumkur as no Order to do so followed Govern-
Sl20) ment Order No 4044/D 104 dated 17th September 1902, although it was stated in it that Govern-ment had under contemplation the stop-ping of the existing Scholarships" &c

(2) The policy of the Government of India regarding the equal treatment of Government and Aided School has been laid down in Chapter VIII pp 351–477 of the Report of the Indian Education Commission of 1882 The following are the principal recommendations of the Commission bearing on the question raised.

"That whilst existing State institutions of the higher order should be maintained in complete efficiency wherever they are necessary, the improvement and extension of institutions under private managers be the principal care of the Department

"That the students of non-government institutions be admitted on equal terms to competition for certificates, scholarships, and other public distinctions.

"That the further extension of female education be preferentially promoted by affording liberal aid and encouragement to managers who show their personal interest in the work, and only when such agency is not available by the establishment of schools under the management of the Department or of Local or Municipal Boards.

"That a periodically increasing provision be made in the education budget of each Province for the expansion of aided institutions"

(3) In reply to the third question I would say that managers of aided institutions are at liberty to spend any portion of the fixed grant they receive upon scholarships and usually no special Grant for scholarships alone is given from public funds. But in the case of the Tumkur schools a special provision for scholarships has been made for the Empress girls School and a special grant for scholarships has been sanctioned for one of the three aided girls' schools, namely, the Hindu Aryabalika Pathasala, for the reason that as much of the provision or grant may be utilised as may be necessary; the number of girls in the IV and V classes being small and unsteady. By this arrangement economy is effected and only so much money is utilised for scholarships as may be absolutely required and no more.

(4) Scholarships for the IV and V classes of girls' schools are likely to encourage middle school education for girls for some years more. The attendance in these classes is very small and unsteady. Government having provided scholarships in the Empress' School which is a Government institution, and also in the Hindu Aryabalika Pathasala which is an aided institution, it is only natural that the managers of the other two Aided girls' schools in Tumkur which are maintained by the Wesleyan Mission should ask for similar help in the shape of scholarships. The plank of the latter managers is that direct girls come up to their IV Class, they threaten to go away to the two favoured institutions in which scholarships are provided, and the Managers find it difficult to get hardly any pupils to prepare for the Lower Secondary Examination - It was under these circumstances that I recommended in my letters No 6282/209 of 24th January 1902 and No 251/14 dated 10th July 1904 that a special grant for scholarships might be sanctioned for each of the four girls schools of Tumkur - If scholarships are abolished in all the four schools, undoubtedly none of them will have any advantage over the others and all will have a fair chance in the competition to succeed

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
